Use sources A, B, C, D, and E, to answer the following questions:

1. What is the message of Source A? (2 marks)

2. Source B states that "Milosevic’s speeches were never nationalistic nor did they contain any racism." Through an examination of Source C, how far is this claim accurate regarding both nationalism and racism? (3 marks)

3. With reference to its origin, purpose, and content, assess the values and limitations of Source C for someone looking at ethnic issues in Yugoslavia. (4 marks)
4. Compare and contrast sources C, D, and E with regard to what support each has for the proposal that keeping the Yugoslav Federation together was a key aim of Milosevic in these speeches. (6 marks)